

EXQUISITE NOISE RECORDS

indie curators since 1991

Are proud to unveil our first label-wide compilation, Neighborhood Classics. Spanning all manner of genre from our initial year of existence to the present, beginning with those first signees, Goofy Guys, on through our latest recruits in Wedlock, this compendium is sure to please anyone even remotely curious about the American underground music landscape. From a vintage early 90s Mother Plastic cut to hot off the presses Lions Of March, it's all right here in this well structured 20 track set. Among the highlights:

The Judas Cow

This talented trio plays melodic Midwestern rock that rub elbows with Tom Petty and Wilco

All Pain No Gain

Multi-instrument maestro Paul Linville leads choice recruits into his distinct hybrid of metal, pop, and techno

Wedlock

Savagely original techno group from Richmond, VA creates hooks which weld to your brain with one listen

The Get-A-Way Band

Nakedly confessional songwriting from Ohio troubadour Frank Medley and his well versed backing band extends a 30 year legacy

Quigley G

This guitar prodigy has clearly studied at the altar of classic rock masters, but brings his own funky spin to the party

Lions Of March

Wildly original tunesmiths create top 40 hits from another galaxy, leaving no corner unturned in their sonic exploration
